

JERRY-BUILT

Meaning: 'JERRY-BUILT' refers to a structure that is poorly constructed or made with inferior materials, often resulting in instability or safety issues.

1. The jerry-built shed collapsed under the heavy snowfall, exposing its shoddy construction.
2. After inspecting the jerry-built house, the inspector flagged numerous safety violations.
3. The jerry-built furniture fell apart within a few months, proving that cheap materials come at a cost.
4. Despite its attractive appearance, the jerry-built structure was riddled with hidden flaws.
5. They regretted buying the jerry-built car, as it frequently broke down and required expensive repairs.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/jerry-built>