

JINK

Meaning: Jink (verb): to move quickly and unexpectedly in a series of sharp turns or evasive maneuvers.

1. The rabbit began to jink through the tall grass, evading the hawk overhead.
2. As the kids played tag, they would jink around each other, laughing and squealing.
3. He managed to jink his way through the crowded market without bumping into anyone.
4. The dancer's movements were so fluid that they seemed to jink effortlessly across the stage.
5. She had to jink to the side to avoid the puddle left by the sudden downpour.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/jink>