

JOBATION

Meaning: Jobation refers to a prolonged or tedious discourse or complaint, often about grievances or criticisms in a workplace context.

1. Her jobation about the unfair treatment at work led to a heated discussion in the staff meeting.
2. The manager's jobation regarding the new policies was met with mixed reactions from the team.
3. During the team lunch, he launched into a jobation about the challenges of remote work.
4. She often shares her jobation about the lack of recognition for hard work in the industry.
5. His passionate jobation sparked a conversation about the need for better workplace conditions.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/jobation>