

JOCUND

Meaning: Jocund means cheerful and lighthearted, often characterized by joy and merriment.

1. The jocund laughter of children filled the park on that sunny afternoon.
2. Her jocund spirit was infectious, lifting the mood of everyone around her.
3. As they celebrated their victory, a jocund atmosphere enveloped the entire team.
4. The jocund melodies of the festival band made it impossible for anyone to stay still.
5. He had a jocund disposition that seemed to brighten even the gloomiest of days.
6. The jocund atmosphere of the festival lifted everyone's spirits.
7. Her jocund laughter echoed through the hall, spreading joy to all who heard it.
8. They shared jocund stories by the fire, each tale more amusing than the last.
9. His jocund demeanor made him the life of every party he attended.
10. The children played in the park, their jocund shouts filling the air with delight.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/jocund>