

JOKE

Meaning: A joke is a humorous remark or story intended to provoke laughter.

1. She cracked a joke that had everyone in the room laughing uncontrollably.
2. His sense of humor was so dry that you could never tell if he was serious or just making a joke.
3. At the party, they shared funny stories and jokes, creating a lively atmosphere.
4. The comedian's latest show was filled with clever jokes that resonated with the audience.
5. Making a joke at the wrong moment can sometimes lead to misunderstandings.
6. I told a joke at the party that had everyone laughing.
7. His sense of humor is so unique that every joke he makes is memorable.
8. They shared a light-hearted joke to break the ice during the tense meeting.
9. Despite the seriousness of the topic, she managed to slip in a clever joke.
10. He didn't realize that his joke had unintentionally offended someone in the group.
11. She told a clever joke that had everyone laughing.
12. His attempt to make a joke fell flat in the serious meeting.
13. I can't believe you took that as a joke; I was being serious!
14. The comedian's new routine is filled with hilarious jokes about everyday life.
15. It's important to know your audience when you make a joke.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/joke>