

JOLT

Meaning: JOLT: a sudden, sharp movement or feeling that causes surprise or excitement.

1. The sudden jolt of the train startled all the passengers on board.
2. He felt a jolt of excitement when he received the acceptance letter from his dream university.
3. The unexpected news delivered a jolt to her confidence, leaving her momentarily speechless.
4. As the car hit the pothole, a jolt ran through the entire vehicle, causing the driver to grip the wheel tightly.
5. The jolt of electricity surged through the circuit, illuminating the entire room in an instant.
6. The sudden jolt of the train startled all the passengers.
7. Her unexpected arrival gave me a jolt of excitement.
8. He felt a jolt of pain shoot through his leg after the fall.
9. The news of the accident was a jolt to the entire community.
10. As the car hit the pothole, I was thrown forward by the jolt.
11. The sudden jolt of the train startled the passengers, waking many from their slumber.
12. After the long meeting, the unexpected news felt like a jolt of energy, sparking excitement in the room.
13. He felt a jolt of fear as he realized he was lost in the dark forest.
14. The car hit a pothole, causing a jolt that made everyone inside grip their seats tightly.
15. Her heart gave a jolt when she saw her childhood friend after many years apart.