

JOLTER

Meaning: JOLTER (noun): a sudden, jarring movement or surge of emotion that causes shock or excitement.

1. The unexpected jolter of the roller coaster left everyone breathless.
2. She felt a sudden jolter of excitement as the announcement was made.
3. The jolter of the thunderstorm rattled the windows and startled the dog.
4. His harsh words served as a jolter, waking her from her complacency.
5. The jolter in his voice made it clear that he was serious about the matter.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/jolter>