

JOURNAL

Meaning: A journal is a personal record or a periodical publication that contains written accounts of thoughts, experiences, or scholarly articles on specific subjects.

1. She kept a journal to document her thoughts and experiences throughout the year.
2. The scientific journal published groundbreaking research on climate change.
3. He flipped through the pages of his old journal, reminiscing about his adventures.
4. Writing in her journal every night became a cherished part of her routine.
5. The literary journal featured works from both established and emerging writers.
6. She decided to keep a journal to document her travels around the world.
7. He flipped through his old journal, reminiscing about the dreams he once had.
8. Writing in her journal each night helped her process the events of the day.
9. The school's literary journal featured creative works from students across all grades.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/journal>