JOVIALLY

Meaning: JOVIALLY: in a cheerful and friendly manner, characterized by good humor and high spirits.

1. She greeted her friends jovially, her laughter ringing through the air.
2. The children played jovially in the park, their joy infectious to everyone around them.
3. At the family reunion, Uncle Joe told stories jovially, making everyone feel at ease.
4. They celebrated the holiday jovially, with music and dancing that lasted late into the night.
5. Despite the rain, the team remained jovially optimistic about their chances in the tournament.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/jovially