

JOWLER

Meaning: Jowler: A person with prominent, sagging skin or flesh beneath the jawline, often giving a distinctive appearance.

1. The old man had a prominent jowler that gave him a distinctive look.
2. After years of laughter, her jowl had become a charming feature of her smile.
3. He noticed a jowler forming after months of indulging in rich desserts.
4. The artist captured the essence of his subject's jowler with remarkable detail.
5. Many people find that as they age, their jowls begin to sag noticeably.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/jowler>