

JUDAS-COLORED

Meaning: 'JUDAS-COLORED' refers to a hue or shade that evokes themes of betrayal or treachery, often characterized by a striking or seductive quality.

1. The artist chose a judas-colored palette to depict the betrayal in his latest painting.
2. Her dress had a judas-colored shimmer that caught the light in a way that felt both alluring and dangerous.
3. In the twilight, the judas-colored sky hinted at the storm brewing on the horizon.
4. They referred to the old building as judas-colored, for its beauty was a facade hiding years of neglect.
5. The judas-colored leaves fell silently, marking the end of a season filled with deceit and loss.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/judas-colored>