

JUKE

Meaning: Juke (verb): to make a quick, deceptive movement to evade an opponent or mislead them.

1. The wide receiver made an impressive juke to evade the defender.
2. She decided to juke left, catching her opponent off guard during the dance battle.
3. The player executed a perfect juke, leaving the goalie frozen in place.
4. In the final moments of the game, he used a quick juke to score the winning goal.
5. As he approached the puddle, he performed a little juke to avoid soaking his shoes.
6. He made an impressive juke to dodge the defender on his way to the basket.
7. The player executed a quick juke, leaving his opponent flat-footed.
8. She learned how to juke in football to create space for her teammates.
9. The dance floor was alive with people showing off their best juke moves.
10. In the last moments of the game, his juke allowed him to score the winning goal.
11. He made a quick juke to the left to evade the defender.
12. The dancer's movements were so graceful that it felt like she was performing a juke on the stage.
13. During the game, the player executed a perfect juke, leaving his opponent flat-footed.
14. You can tell a good musician by how smoothly they can juke between genres.
15. She loved to juke around on the dance floor, blending different styles effortlessly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/juke>