

JUMBLER

Meaning: A jumbler is a person or thing that rearranges or mixes elements, such as letters or stories, often resulting in confusion or novelty.

1. The jumbler rearranged the letters to create a new word from the original.
2. At the party, he was known as the jumbler, always mixing up stories and facts.
3. She enjoyed solving puzzles, especially when they involved a jumbler of letters.
4. The jumbler was a favorite game among the children, testing their word-building skills.
5. His penchant for being a jumbler made conversations with him both amusing and confusing.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/jumbler>