

JUMP

Meaning: Jump: to spring off the ground or a surface by pushing with the legs and feet.

1. She felt a rush of adrenaline as she prepared to jump off the diving board.
2. The children laughed and squealed as they jumped in the puddles after the rain.
3. He decided to jump at the chance to travel abroad for the summer.
4. With a great leap, the athlete managed to jump over the high bar effortlessly.
5. The sudden noise made her jump in surprise, spilling her coffee everywhere.
6. The children were eager to jump into the pool on a hot summer day.
7. With a sudden burst of energy, he decided to jump over the puddle instead of walking around it.
8. She felt a rush of excitement as she prepared to jump from the highest point of the diving board.
9. In the middle of the crowded street, he had to jump out of the way to avoid the oncoming bike.
10. The athlete trained tirelessly, hoping to jump higher than anyone in the upcoming competition.
11. The children decided to jump into the pile of leaves with glee.
12. She couldn't help but jump for joy when she heard the good news.
13. He practiced his jump shot for hours to improve his basketball skills.
14. As the music played, they began to jump and dance around the room.
15. The cat made a surprising jump from the floor to the windowsill.
16. She took a deep breath before she decided to jump into the chilly water.
17. The children laughed and squealed as they watched the dog jump over the log.
18. With a powerful leap, the athlete managed to jump higher than ever before.
19. In the thrilling climax of the movie, the hero had to jump from one building to another.
20. He felt a rush of adrenaline as he prepared to jump from the diving board.
21. She decided to jump over the puddle to keep her shoes dry.
22. The children were excited to jump on the trampoline during the party.

23. He felt a rush of adrenaline when he took a leap and jumped from the cliff into the water below.
24. During the dance competition, she amazed the judges with her ability to jump high and land gracefully.
25. The athlete trained every day to perfect her jump for the upcoming championship.
26. The children couldn't contain their excitement and began to jump up and down.
27. With a deep breath, he prepared to jump off the diving board into the pool.
28. The cat made a daring leap to jump from the fence to the roof.
29. After weeks of practice, she finally learned how to jump rope without tripping.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/jump>