

JUNKER

Meaning: JUNKER (noun): a dilapidated or old vehicle, especially one that is in poor condition and not functioning well.

1. The old car in the driveway was nothing more than a junker, barely running and covered in rust.
2. He bought a junker at the auction, hoping to restore it to its former glory.
3. After years of neglect, that junker was ready to be towed away for scrap.
4. They laughed when they saw his new junker, but he was proud of the project he had taken on.
5. Finding a hidden gem among a lot of junkers can be a thrilling experience for car enthusiasts.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/junker>