

JURATORY

Meaning: JURATORY: relating to or involving an oath or solemn declaration, especially in a legal context.

1. The juratory oath was a solemn promise made by the witnesses before the court.
2. In ancient times, a juratory declaration often carried more weight than written evidence.
3. The juratory nature of the testimony added credibility to the prosecution's case.
4. She felt a deep sense of responsibility as she prepared to give her juratory statement.
5. His juratory commitment to tell the truth was evident in his unwavering gaze.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/juratory>