

JUREL

Meaning: Jurel is a type of fish, specifically a jack or horse mackerel, valued for its rich flavor and commonly used in coastal cuisines.

1. Jurel is a popular fish in many coastal cuisines, prized for its rich flavor.
2. The local market was bustling with customers eager to buy fresh jurel caught that morning.
3. After grilling the jurel with herbs and spices, the dish was a hit at the dinner party.
4. In some regions, jurel is often used in traditional dishes that highlight its tender texture.
5. The fishermen returned with their catch, showcasing a stunning array of jurel alongside other seafood.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/jurel>