

JURIST

Meaning: A jurist is a legal expert or scholar, particularly one who is knowledgeable in law and often involved in legal education or reform.

1. The renowned jurist delivered a compelling lecture on constitutional law.
2. As a respected jurist, she often contributed to discussions on legal reform.
3. His reputation as a fair-minded jurist earned him the trust of both legal professionals and the public.
4. The jurist's interpretations of the law have shaped many landmark cases.
5. In her role as a jurist, she emphasized the importance of justice and equity in legal proceedings.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/jurist>