

JURY-RIGGED

Meaning: Jury-rigged: temporarily and hastily constructed or repaired using available materials.

1. The engineer jury-rigged the broken machine to keep it running until the replacement parts arrived.
2. During the camping trip, we jury-rigged a makeshift shelter from fallen branches and tarps.
3. He jury-rigged the old television with some duct tape and wires after it stopped working.
4. In a pinch, she jury-rigged the costume with items she found around the house for the party.
5. The car broke down, but they jury-rigged a solution using a few tools and some creativity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/jury-rigged>