

JUSTIFICATION

Meaning: Justification refers to a reason or argument that demonstrates the validity or righteousness of an action or decision.

1. The lawyer provided a compelling justification for her client's actions during the trial.
2. In his speech, he struggled to find a justification for the controversial policy changes.
3. The team's success served as a justification for the investments made by the shareholders.
4. She felt that the emotional turmoil she experienced was sufficient justification for her decision to leave.
5. The research findings offered a solid justification for further funding in the project.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/justification>