

JUSTIFICATIVE

Meaning: Justificative: serving to provide justification or support for a claim or argument.

1. The lawyer presented a justificative argument that convinced the jury of her client's innocence.
2. In academic writing, it is crucial to provide a justificative framework for your thesis.
3. The report lacked a justificative basis for its claims, making it difficult to accept its conclusions.
4. Her justificative reasoning helped clarify the complex issues at hand during the debate.
5. The committee requested a more detailed justificative document to support the proposed changes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/justificative>