

JUSTIFIER

Meaning: Justifier: a person or thing that provides justification or rationale for an action, belief, or decision.

1. The lawyer presented a compelling justifier for her client's actions during the trial.
2. In philosophical discussions, a moral justifier is often required to determine the rightness of an action.
3. He struggled to find a justifier for his decision, knowing it could affect his career.
4. The teacher served as a justifier for the new curriculum changes, emphasizing their benefits for student learning.
5. Her passion for social justice became the justifier for her lifelong commitment to activism.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/justifier>