

JUSTNESS

Meaning: Justness refers to the quality of being fair, just, or morally right in a decision or principle.

1. The justness of the decision was praised by both sides of the argument.
2. In her speech, she emphasized the justness of equal rights for all individuals.
3. The justness of the legal system is often questioned in high-profile cases.
4. He fought for the justness of his cause, believing it was morally right.
5. The committee's commitment to justness ensured that all voices were heard.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/justness>