

JUXTAPOSE

Meaning: To juxtapose means to place two or more elements side by side for the purpose of comparison or contrast.

1. The artist chose to juxtapose bright colors with dark themes in her latest painting.
2. In the essay, the author decided to juxtapose historical events with modern-day implications.
3. The designer aimed to juxtapose traditional elements with contemporary styles in the new collection.
4. The documentary skillfully juxtaposes interviews from various perspectives to highlight the complexity of the issue.
5. By juxtaposing the two films, the critic illustrated the stark differences in their storytelling approaches.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/juxtapose>