

JUXTAPOSING

Meaning: Juxtaposing refers to the act of placing different elements side by side to compare or contrast them.

1. The artist's work is remarkable for its skillful juxtaposing of vibrant colors and muted tones.
2. In her essay, she explores the juxtaposing of historical perspectives to highlight contemporary issues.
3. The film's strength lies in its juxtaposing of light-hearted moments with profound themes of loss.
4. By juxtaposing different literary styles, the author creates a rich tapestry of narrative voices.
5. The exhibit focuses on juxtaposing traditional techniques with modern interpretations in sculpture.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/juxtaposing>