

KECKLING

Meaning: Keckling refers to a series of loud, clucking or cackling sounds made by chickens or a similar noise made by people, often associated with excitement or playfulness.

1. The sound of keckling filled the air as the children played their games in the backyard.
2. With a sudden burst of excitement, the hens began keckling, signaling that it was time for their feed.
3. As the group gathered around the fire, their keckling laughter created a warm and inviting atmosphere.
4. She couldn't help but join in the keckling when she heard her friend's humorous story.
5. The playful keckling of the ducks by the pond added a charming touch to the serene landscape.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/keckling>