

KEECH

Meaning: 'Keech' refers to a sound or act of flatulence, often characterized by a loud or noticeable release of gas.

1. He was so tired after the long hike that he plopped down on the grass and let out a big keech.
2. The old man told stories of the keech that used to roam the hills when he was a boy.
3. After finishing the meal, she leaned back and let out a contented keech, feeling completely satisfied.
4. During the picnic, the children burst into laughter whenever one of them would make a funny keech.
5. The sound of his keech echoed across the quiet lake, startling the ducks nearby.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/keech>