

KERATOGENOUS

Meaning: Keratogenous refers to the layer of skin responsible for the production and formation of keratin, which is essential for hair and nail development.

1. The keratogenous layer of the skin plays a crucial role in the formation of hair and nails.
2. In certain medical conditions, abnormal keratogenous activity can lead to excessive skin thickening.
3. The study focused on the keratogenous properties of various tissues in relation to wound healing.
4. Researchers are investigating the keratogenous factors that influence the growth of corneal cells.
5. Understanding the keratogenous mechanisms can provide insights into treating dermatological disorders.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/keratogenous>