

KEY-COLD

Meaning: Key-cold refers to an intensely cold and sharp sensation of air, often associated with early morning or brisk conditions.

1. The key-cold air of the early morning sent chills down my spine.
2. She opened the door to find a key-cold breeze sweeping through the hallway.
3. After the snowstorm, the key-cold temperatures made it difficult to stay outside for long.
4. The key-cold touch of the metal handle surprised him as he stepped into the unheated garage.
5. During winter, the key-cold nights often led to frost on the windows by morning.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/key-cold>