

KICK

Meaning: KICK (verb): To strike or propel something forcefully with the foot.

1. She decided to kick the ball as hard as she could during the game.
2. After a long day at work, a good workout can really kick off my relaxation.
3. The team was hoping to kick their losing streak with a win this weekend.
4. I felt a sudden kick in my stomach when I received the unexpected news.
5. He gave the door a swift kick when it wouldn't open.
6. After a long day, he felt a sudden kick of energy when he heard his favorite song.
7. The coach encouraged the players to kick it into high gear for the final stretch of the match.
8. With a swift kick, the dancer launched into her impressive routine, captivating the audience.
9. The unexpected news gave her a kick of excitement that made her smile.
10. She decided to kick the soccer ball as hard as she could.
11. The enthusiastic audience began to kick off the concert with loud cheers.
12. He gave the door a firm kick when it refused to open.
13. The coach told the players to kick it into high gear for the final minutes of the game.
14. After a long day, she wanted nothing more than to kick back and relax at home.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/kick>