

KILL

Meaning: KILL (verb): To cause the death of a living being or to bring about the end of something, such as an emotion or spirit.

1. The hunter aimed carefully, determined to kill the deer before dusk.
2. Her disappointment from the lost opportunity felt like it could kill her spirit.
3. In the movie, the villain plotted to kill the protagonist in a shocking twist.
4. Overexposure to the sun can kill plants that are not suited for such harsh conditions.
5. His harsh words were enough to kill the joyful atmosphere in the room.
6. The hunter aimed carefully, hoping to kill the deer swiftly and humanely.
7. In the novel, the villain plotted to kill the hero in a dramatic showdown.
8. Neglecting to water the plants for weeks could ultimately kill them.
9. The news of the tragic accident left everyone in shock, realizing how quickly life can be killed.
10. He decided to kill the rumor before it spread any further.
11. She decided to kill the engine before stepping out of the car.
12. The documentary aimed to raise awareness about how pollution can kill marine life.
13. In a moment of rage, he wished he could kill the pain that had haunted him for years.
14. The scientist was determined to find a way to kill the bacteria without harming the good cells.
15. The thrilling plot twist revealed that the seemingly innocent character had been the one to kill the antagonist.