

KISS

Meaning: KISS (noun): A gentle pressing of the lips against someone or something as a sign of affection or greeting.

1. She leaned in to give him a soft kiss as the sun set behind them.
2. The children giggled as they watched the puppy give its owner a wet kiss.
3. After their long separation, the couple finally exchanged a passionate kiss at the airport.
4. He placed a gentle kiss on her forehead, reassuring her that everything would be alright.
5. The unexpected kiss caught her off guard, leaving her breathless and smiling.
6. She greeted him with a soft kiss on the cheek.
7. The couple shared a passionate kiss under the stars.
8. A simple kiss can convey more than words ever could.
9. He leaned in and gave her a quick kiss before leaving.
10. The children laughed and squealed when their mother planted a kiss on their foreheads.
11. She leaned in for a gentle kiss, her heart racing with anticipation.
12. The playful kiss on his cheek made her smile widen.
13. Under the stars, they shared a passionate kiss that seemed to last forever.
14. He brushed his lips against hers in a soft, lingering kiss.
15. A quick kiss goodbye was all they had before the long separation.