

KLICK

Meaning: KLICK (noun): a sharp, clicking sound or action, often associated with mechanisms like buttons or switches.

1. KLICK is often used in German to describe a click sound or action.
2. I heard a soft klick when she pressed the button on her camera.
3. With a quick klick, the lock disengaged and the door swung open.
4. He adjusted his glasses with a slight klick of the hinge.
5. The game was paused with a satisfying klick of the remote control.
6. The mechanical keyboard emitted a pleasing klick with each keypress.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/klick>