

KNOCK-OFF

Meaning: A 'knock-off' is a cheap imitation or replica of a branded product, often designed to look similar to the original.

1. The store was filled with designer knock-offs that looked almost identical to the originals.
2. He was disappointed to find that the watch he bought online was just a cheap knock-off.
3. After careful inspection, she realized that the knock-off handbag was made from inferior materials.
4. The artist was furious when he discovered that someone had released a knock-off of his popular painting.
5. Buying knock-offs might save you money, but they often lack the quality of genuine items.
6. The designer was furious to discover that a knock-off version of her handbag was being sold at a fraction of the price.
7. He bought a knock-off watch that looked nearly identical to the luxury model but lacked the same craftsmanship.
8. The market was flooded with knock-off sneakers that appealed to budget-conscious consumers.
9. After some research, she realized that the knock-off perfume didn't have the same lasting power as the original.
10. The store faced legal issues for selling knock-off electronics that violated copyright laws.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/knock-off>