

KOTOW

Meaning: KOTOW (verb): to kneel and bow deeply as a sign of respect or submission, particularly in Japanese culture.

1. In Japanese culture, it is important to kotow to those in positions of authority.
2. The traditional ceremony required participants to kotow as a sign of respect.
3. When meeting the elders, he chose to kotow instead of simply bowing.
4. The act of kotow demonstrates a deep appreciation for someone's wisdom and experience.
5. Many students learned to kotow as a way to honor their teachers during the festival.
6. The ancient custom of kotow requires one to show utmost respect to their elders.
7. In some cultures, students are taught to kotow to their teachers as a sign of reverence.
8. During the ceremony, the participants were expected to kotow before the shrine.
9. The practice of kotow has deep roots in tradition and is often seen in formal settings.
10. She felt a deep sense of humility as she prepared to kotow before the dignitaries.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/kotow>