

LAAGER

Meaning: Laager: a defensive encampment or enclosure, often made of wagons or tents, used for protection and shelter.

1. The community gathered around the laager for protection during the tumultuous night.
2. As the sun set, the children played near the laager, their laughter echoing in the air.
3. The historical significance of the laager was evident in the stories passed down through generations.
4. During the crisis, the laager served as a refuge for those seeking safety from the chaos outside.
5. The settlers built a sturdy laager, using their skills to ensure their survival in the wilderness.
6. The settlers formed a laager for protection against potential attacks.
7. During the festival, a laager was constructed to host the community's events.
8. In times of crisis, the laager served as a refuge for families seeking safety.
9. The historical reenactment featured a laager that resembled those used by early pioneers.
10. As the sun set, the glow from the fire illuminated the laager, creating a warm atmosphere.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/laager>