LABEFY

Meaning: Labefy: to subject a substance to a process that transforms it into a liquid state for analysis or experimentation.

1. The chemist was excited to labefy the compound to observe its unique properties.
2. In the experiment, they needed to labefy the solution before conducting further analysis.
3. To labefy the material effectively, precise temperature control was essential.
4. Researchers often find it challenging to labefy certain organic substances without altering their structure.
5. The process to labefy the sample required a series of careful steps to ensure accuracy.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/labefy