

LABENT

Meaning: LABENT: (adjective) characterized by a state of being flowing or gradually fading, often evoking a sense of emotional depth or a soft, gentle light.

1. The labent emotions of the character added depth to the story.
2. As the sun dipped below the horizon, a labent glow illuminated the valley.
3. The artist captured the labent beauty of the landscape in her painting.
4. He spoke of his labent feelings, unsure if he should share them with anyone.
5. The labent tension in the room was palpable as everyone awaited the announcement.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/labent>