

LABIALISM

Meaning: Labialism is the phonetic phenomenon involving the articulation of sounds using the lips.

1. Labialism is an important concept in phonetics, referring to sounds produced with the lips.
2. In some languages, labialism can significantly affect the meaning of words.
3. The study of labialism can reveal fascinating insights into speech patterns across different cultures.
4. Children often exhibit labialism as they learn to form sounds and words correctly.
5. Understanding labialism is crucial for linguists working on speech therapy techniques.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/labialism>