

LABIATED

Meaning: LABIATED: having petals that are fused at the base, typically forming a lip-like structure, commonly found in certain flowering plants.

1. The labiated flowers of the plant attracted a variety of pollinators.
2. In botany, a labiated structure often refers to petals that are fused at the base.
3. The labiated design of the mouthparts in certain insects allows for more efficient feeding.
4. His research focused on the evolutionary advantages of labiated plant species.
5. The labiated characteristics of the species help distinguish it from its relatives.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/labiated>