

LABIONASAL

Meaning: Labionasal refers to a type of consonant sound produced by simultaneous closure at the lips and airflow through the nasal cavity.

1. The labionasal sounds produced in some languages involve vibrations of both the lips and the nasal cavity.
2. In phonetics, the labionasal consonant is characterized by a simultaneous closure at the lips and an airflow through the nasal passage.
3. Research on labionasal articulation has revealed interesting patterns in speech development among children.
4. The labionasal feature of certain dialects can distinguish meaning in otherwise similar words.
5. Speech therapists often focus on labionasal pronunciation to help clients with specific speech impairments.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/labionasal>