

LABIPALP

Meaning: Labipalp: a sensory appendage found in many insects, typically associated with the mouthparts and involved in feeding and sensation.

1. The labialpalp is an important sensory structure in many insect species.
2. During the dissection, we carefully examined the labipalps of the specimen.
3. Understanding the functionality of labipalps can reveal much about insect feeding habits.
4. The labipalp's shape varies significantly among different families of insects.
5. Researchers noted that the labipalps play a crucial role in taste perception.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/labipalp>