

LABIUM

Meaning: Labium refers to a lip-like structure or fold, particularly in anatomy, denoting either the lips in humans or similar features in the anatomy of insects.

1. The labium is an important anatomical feature in various species of insects.
2. In human anatomy, the term labium typically refers to the lips or labia surrounding the mouth.
3. During dissection, the labium of the specimen was carefully examined for any signs of abnormalities.
4. In certain species of birds, the labium plays a crucial role in their feeding mechanism.
5. The labium's structure can vary significantly between different types of mollusks.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/labium>