

LABURNINE

Meaning: Laburnine refers to a toxic quality associated with the laburnum plant, particularly noted for its yellow flowers and potential danger if ingested.

1. The laburnine plant, known for its beautiful yellow flowers, can be toxic if ingested.
2. In literature, the term laburnine often symbolizes danger due to its poisonous nature.
3. Her garden was filled with laburnine trees that offered both beauty and a warning to curious children.
4. The laburnine alkaloids can cause severe symptoms in humans when consumed in large quantities.
5. Despite its allure, the laburnine species should be handled with caution to avoid potential health risks.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/laburnine>