

LABYRINTH

Meaning: Labyrinth: a complex and intricate network of paths or passages, often designed to confuse, or a complicated situation filled with difficult choices and emotions.

1. The ancient maze was a labyrinth of twisting paths and hidden chambers.
2. Navigating through the emotional labyrinth of her past proved to be a challenging journey.
3. The artist's latest installation resembled a labyrinth, drawing visitors into its intricate design.
4. As the sun set, the shadows deepened in the labyrinth, creating an eerie atmosphere.
5. To find the exit of the labyrinth, he needed to rely on both his intuition and sense of direction.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/labyrinth>