

LABYRINTHINE

Meaning: LABYRINTHINE: adjective describing something that is intricate, convoluted, or resembling a maze in structure or complexity.

1. The ancient castle was filled with labyrinthine corridors that seemed to twist and turn endlessly.
2. Her thoughts were labyrinthine, weaving through memories and possibilities in a complex tapestry.
3. The artist's latest installation featured a labyrinthine structure that challenged visitors to find their way through.
4. Navigating the labyrinthine streets of the old town was both a delight and a challenge for the tourists.
5. He found the labyrinthine regulations of the bureaucracy overwhelming as he tried to start his new business.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/labyrinthine>