

LACE-BARK

*Meaning: Lace-bark refers to the bark of certain trees, particularly from the genus Laguncularia, characterized by its intricate, peeling texture and used for making durable ropes and decorative items.*

1. Lace-bark trees are known for their intricate, peeling bark that reveals stunning patterns underneath.
2. The indigenous people often used lace-bark for making ropes and decorative items due to its durability.
3. In spring, the lace-bark showcases delicate flowers that attract various pollinators, adding to its charm.
4. As I walked through the botanical garden, I marveled at the unique texture of the lace-bark on the old trees.
5. Gardeners appreciate lace-bark not only for its beauty but also for its ability to withstand harsh weather conditions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lace-bark>