

LACE-WINGED

Meaning: Lace-winged refers to insects, particularly butterflies or similar species, characterized by their delicate, intricately veined wings that often shimmer in light.

1. The lace-winged insect flitted gracefully among the flowers, its delicate wings shimmering in the sunlight.
2. In the garden, we marveled at the lace-winged butterflies that danced from petal to petal.
3. Her gown featured a lace-winged design, with intricate patterns that resembled those of the delicate insect.
4. The lace-winged species plays a vital role in pest control by preying on aphids and other garden nuisances.
5. As night fell, the lace-winged moths emerged, their ethereal presence enchanting all who beheld them.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lace-winged>