

LACERATIVE

Meaning: LACERATIVE: causing or characterized by tearing or wounding, often resulting in pain or distress.

1. The lacerative nature of the injury required immediate medical attention.
2. She winced as the lacerative sound of the violin pierced the stillness of the room.
3. In their discussion, they addressed the lacerative effects of harsh criticism on young artists.
4. The lacerative experience of the breakup left her feeling emotionally raw for weeks.
5. His lacerative remarks during the debate enraged many in the audience.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lacerative>