

LACHRYMARY

Meaning: Lachrymatory: causing or producing tears; tear-inducing.

1. Her lachrymose demeanor during the farewell party left everyone feeling a sense of melancholy.
2. The film was so lachrymatory that I found myself reaching for tissues halfway through.
3. In his lachrymary speech, he recounted stories of lost loved ones that moved the audience to tears.
4. The painting's lachrymose colors evoked a deep sense of sorrow and reflection in the viewer.
5. She had a lachrymary quality that made her both captivating and heart-wrenching to watch.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lachrymary>